

Wear Your Resistance to Canada's War Economy!

With the Harper government expanding the massive amounts of money poured into the war budget (building on the awful legacy of the Liberals and the so-called NDP budget that allowed countless new billions to flow into war), what better time to show your support for a peace economy where we provide not-for-profit housing for all who need it at home and abroad? Upwards of $20 billion a year (the Canadian war budget) feeds and clothes and houses a lot of people, provides a lot of free AIDS drugs, cleans up a lot of environmental hotspots, and builds a lot of daycare spaces....

Support the work of Homes not Bombs by purchasing one of our shirts and wearing it proudly to work, to school, to your next demo, your next court appearance....

Price: $20

($23 if mailed to include postage)
